It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for 60 months under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

If at anytime the defendant tests positive for the use of any controlled substance or use of alcohol, the defendant will be required to attend and successfully complete a residential training and treatment program, with partial costs to be paid by the defendant, as directed by the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall not operate any form of motor vehicle during the period of supervised release, regardless of whether he has an operator's license from the Commonwealth of Virginia or any other state.
4. Upon defendant's release onto supervised release, the court reserves the right to impose child support payments if defendant does not reside with or support his child.
